

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 1st January, 2025

1. Introduction

Welcome to Pryvate. Your privacy is of utmost importance to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your information when you use our service. This policy complies with the privacy requirements of both Google Play Store and Apple's App Store.

2. Information We Collect

When you use Pryvate, we collect the following information:

- Your name and email address through Google OAuth for authentication and identification purposes.
- Email sender addresses for analytics purposes.
- Device information, including operating system and app version, for performance monitoring and debugging.
- Usage data to analyze user interactions and improve service performance.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the collected information solely for the following purposes:

- Authentication and identification of users.
- Analytics to improve our services.
- Forwarding emails from your generated sudo email address to your actual email address.
- Ensuring app functionality and security.
- Compliance with legal requirements.

4. Data Protection and Security

We prioritize the security of your data and take appropriate measures to protect it.

- We do not and cannot read users' emails or email subjects.

- We never sell or share user data with third parties.
- We implement strict security measures to safeguard the limited data we collect.
- We follow industry-standard encryption and security practices.

5. Data Retention and Deletion

We retain collected data only for as long as necessary to fulfill our service obligations. Users may request the deletion of their data by contacting us. If you uninstall the app, we may still retain some information as required by law or for legitimate business purposes.

6. Third-Party Services

Pryvate may use third-party services that comply with Google Play Store and Apple App Store policies, including analytics and authentication services. These third parties are bound by strict data protection policies.

7. User Rights

As a user, you have the right to:

- Access the data we have collected about you.
- Request the deletion of your data.
- Withdraw your consent for data processing.
- Opt out of analytics tracking.

8. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any significant changes will be communicated through our platform or via email.
